

Southeast Florida ACA Intergroup is offering PUTTING THE “PROMISES” INTO ACTION WORKSHOP

An Experiential Means to Envision, Feel, and Enact the ACA Promises into Your Life

The ACA Promises are meant to come true for every single Adult Child who is endeavoring to clear the wreckage from their past and live a life that “Expects the best, and gets it.” This workshop is designed to assist participants to envision any specific promises they want to see come true in their own lives.

Using experiential and action-based methods, participants will create and enact those promises as they wish to see them. This is an interactive workshop. Participants will be invited to move and interact with each other, assisting each other in the creation process. Please dress accordingly.

This workshop is a great opportunity to explore your creativity, your connection with your Higher Power, with others, and with your Inner Child. We intend to have fun, play, and support each other as we create and enact.

The ACA Promises are meant for all Adult Children who no longer wish to suffer. They are promised to us, so let's go get them!

WHEN: Sat., June 2, 2018 from 12:00-2:00pm

Please be sure to arrive on time or even early to assist with workshop grouping and flow.

WHERE: Cross Community Church, 2575 Lone Pine Rd., Palm Beach Gardens
